

Business & Talent Strategy Coach and Consultant

Meri M. Stockwell is a globally recognized leader renowned for building and guiding high-performing teams. As the President of Meritas Advisory Group, a certified PI Partner, Meri specializes in talent optimization, coaching, consulting, negotiation, executive search, and leadership development. Her leadership creates an enjoyable and productive work environment, positioning her as a strategic advisor capable of guiding organizations toward sustained success.

Meri's Unique Approach

- Strategic Leadership: Drives organizational excellence and a culture of success.
- Talent Development: Commits to cultivating curiosity and empowering team members at every level to reach new career heights.
- Results-Oriented: Balances a results-driven approach with a commitment to laughter and fun.

Meri's Strengths

- Expertise in talent optimization, coaching, consulting, category management, negotiations, and developing leaders.
- Lifelong learner, staying at the forefront of industry trends.
- Strategic advisor offering innovative solutions and insights.

Meri's Results:

- Positioned many companies for a competitive advantage.
- Reputation as a catalyst for individual and team success.
- In addition to her role at Meritas Advisory Group, Meri chairs the Advisory Board for St. Petersburg College School of Business, contributing to sustained success. She co-hosts the popular Talent Talk & Strategy Stroll podcast, sharing insights globally. Meri resides in the Tampa Bay area, finding joy in golf, e-bike rides, cooking, and quality time with her fur baby.

Meri's Achievements

- Led several organizations through a dynamic Predictive Index employee engagement process, resulting in significant organizational change.
- Spearheaded successful global procurement teams, strategically positioning companies for a competitive advantage.
- Accelerated professional growth through intentional stretch assignments, earning a reputation as a catalyst for individual and team success.
- Certified talent optimization consultant and Positive Intelligence coach, emphasizing a positive and resilient mindset. Plus, she earned an MBA from St. Leo University.